Lesson 2

IV. Read the text.

My hometown

I have returned to my hometown of Wilson Creek after an absence of 10 years.

So many things have changed around here. When I left Wilson Creek, there was a small pond on the right as you left town. They have filled in this pond and they have built a large shopping mall there. A new post office has also been built (*) just across from my old school.

There is a baseball stadium on the outskirts of Wilson Creek which has been changed (*) completely. They have now added a new stand where probably a few thousand people could sit. It looks really great.

The biggest changes have taken place in the downtown area. They have pedestrianised the centre and you can't drive there anymore. A European-style fountain has been built () and some benches have also been added () along with a grassy area and a new street cafe.

My street looks just the same as it always has but a public library has been built (*) in the next street along. There used to be a great park there but they have cut down all the trees which is a pity. The library now has a large green area in front of it but it's not the same as when the park was there.

Another improvement is the number of new restaurants that have opened in Wilson Creek. A Chinese and an Italian restaurant have opened in the town centre and a Mexican restaurant has opened near my home. Which is where I am going tonight!

() Note of the teacher: these examples are in present perfect with passive voice, a variety of the present perfect simple, Although it is not part of the contents of this course, it is important for you to know a bit about this grammar structure in case you see it in other contexts.*
